

Forming Saints to Serve All!

November 21, 2016

Dear Parents and Friends of All Saints Academy,

You have done it again! Through your hard work and giving hearts, our Eaglefest Auction was undoubtedly the most successful fundraiser in the history of our school! We still have a couple of expenses to be paid so we can't give you a final number, but our $62,488 in gross receipts has put us in a very favorable position. With this money, we will be able to fulfill all our greatest needs presented at the auction, next year's Home and School and Athletics budgets, and several other special projects as they arise throughout the year.

Even more important than the dollars, was the community building that happened that evening. It was such a joy to watch people meet new friends, laugh, cheer and support ASA. If you were unable to attend this year, make sure to mark your calendar for Saturday, November 11, 2017. We can't stress enough that this night is more about making connections than making money...although it's nice when we can do both!

I also want to take the time to thank a few people who went above and beyond to make Eaglefest a prosperous event. Thank you to Tressa Brondyke and Deb Ables for their tireless work in the days leading up to the auction, Gina Moll for her beautiful decorations that provided ambiance to our venue, Jessica Lyons for her attention to detail and organization of past auctions that made this year such an easy transition, and of course our emcee and one of ASA's loudest cheerleaders, Mr. John Matlak for all that he does for the development of All Saints Academy. More thanks go to our staff members for volunteering during the auction itself, the McKinney family for their work behind the scenes, and to all those who came early or stayed late to help. We couldn't have done it without you!

God Bless,
