Dear Families of All Saints Academy Students,

Saying Goodbye to Mr. Jon

In case you missed our earlier messages this week, we are extremely sad to have suddenly lost Mr. Jon Fournier this past Tuesday, January 3. You and your children may know him as the Elementary maintenance man, greeting your students as they enter school every morning, or the lunch guy, or the ski club advisor, or the tech helper. The list goes on and on. During his 8 years at ASA, he has kept our Elementary building clean and maintained, removed snow, supervised the playground, taught countless children how to ski, led the Boy Scouts, helped install and troubleshoot our technology, and generally helped out in any capacity he was either asked, or saw a need. He was also very active at St. Jude Parish and Northview Sports Boosters. Mr. Jon leaves behind his wife, Holly, and sons JT, Nate and Eli, all ASA alumni. His obituary can be found here, including visitation and funeral times.

Funeral Child Care

We will be offering Child Care during Mr. Jon's funeral, from 11:30am - 1:30 pm at the middle school. If you want to take advantage of this service, please sign up using this link. We are asking for a $5 donation per family.

Menchie's Mondays

During the Winter season, be sure to stop by Menchie's Frozen Yogurt at Knapp's Crossing every Monday, and mention ASA when you order. On Mondays, Menchie's will donate a percentage of the sale back to ASA.
