Dear Parents and Guardians,

Thanks to all who were able to join us on April 30th for the Protect Young Eyes presentation with Chris McKenna. We had a great turnout!

For those who were present, and if you were not but would like more information, the Protect Young Eyes team has recently made all of their premium content for parents free so you can protect your kids and also learn more about digital topics. Please visit:

Are you interested in more parent information nights? Save the date for an adolescent focus session with Sr. Colleen Ann Nagle!

Normal Ego and Boundary Development

May 21, 6:30 pm

Brophy Center, St Jude

Students and teachers will be continuing to incorporate the Virtue in Media curriculum from Protect Young Eyes this May and throughout the 2018-2019 school year!

Did you notice the reminder in the email blast this past Friday about cell phones?

Cell Phones - If students have personal devices like cell phones at school we request that they remain off and in lockers during the school day.

Any technology access students need for learning is available to them through school devices and their ASA Google Accounts.

Communications between home and students can still be easily coordinated through the school office.
